CANDIDATE PROFILE

Victor Arias at a glance

Victor Arias is a candidate for Congress in Florida's 19th Congressional District.

His campaign biography describes more than 27 years in Southwest Florida and a record of legal and community service. The Florida Bar's public directory lists Victor Arias as a Florida attorney admitted on April 26, 1991.

“I've spent my entire career advocating for those who couldn't advocate for themselves. Now I'm ready to do the same for all of Southwest Florida.”

CAMPAIGN PRIORITIES

Five commitments for Southwest Florida

Victor's published framework connects household affordability, resilient infrastructure, clean water, accessible healthcare, and earned benefits to practical federal action.

COST OF LIVINGLower everyday pressure

Address grocery prices, oppose corporate price gouging, expand affordable housing, and support Southwest Florida workers and small businesses.

INFRASTRUCTUREBuild and recover together

Work across the aisle for roads, bridges, broadband, flood protection, hurricane preparedness, and recovery.

CLEAN WATERProtect water and the regional economy

Support Everglades restoration, source-focused water quality, red-tide research, tourism, and local jobs.

HEALTHCAREMake healthcare more affordable

Advance Medicare drug-price negotiation, lower out-of-pocket prescription costs, improve provider access, and address surprise medical billing.

VETERANSDeliver earned benefits

Reduce unnecessary VA red tape and improve access to healthcare and benefits veterans have earned.
